The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation and has been recognized as tax-exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Organization applies accounting policies that prescribe when to recognize and how to measure the financial statement effects of income tax positions taken or expected to be taken on its income tax returns. These rules require management to evaluate the likelihood that, upon examination by the relevant taxing jurisdictions, those income tax positions would be sustained. Based on that evaluation, the Organization only recognizes the maximum benefit of each income tax position that is more than 50% likely of being sustained. To the extent that all or a portion of the benefits of an income tax position are not recognized, a liability would be recognized for the unrecognized benefits, along with any interest and penalties that would result from disallowance of the position. Should any such penalties and interest be incurred, they would be recognized as operating expenses. Based on the results of management's evaluation, no liability is recognized in the accompanying balance sheets for unrecognized income tax positions. Further, no interest or penalties have been accrued or charged to expense as of June 30, 2025 and 2024 or for the years then ended. The Organization's tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes, the tax returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of these returns.

Other services for which they turn to us as a major provider are minor surgery, pediatric care, and general surgery.

The organization serves a predominately rural area in Seminole County, in its broadest boundaries. Donalsonville is the economic and medical hub for the region, and the organization draws from a population of approximately 9,000 residents for major health care services. The region is marked by vast dichotomies of wealth, education, and health status. The organization serves a population that has a high proportion of low-income individuals. About 25.2% of families and 25.49% of the population were below the poverty line.

Part VI, Line 5 - Promotion of Community Health
Our board of directors works closely with the local civic organizations, elected officials and community leaders to determine what the healthcare needs are of our community. We have participated in various local health fairs to promote good health and provide screening mechanisms for detecting high blood pressure, abnormal blood sugar levels and high cholesterol. These are the most pressing and preventable diseases in our community. We work closely with the local health department to assist them with the programs that they facilitate throughout the year. Our board has had in place for more than 20 years, a scholarship program for physicians and other healthcare professionals. We have been fortunate to have many of our local residents finish medical school, nursing school and other professional certifications, and come back to Donalsonville to practice and work in our local healthcare community. This type of program has helped keep healthcare available and accessible to our rural community. It has enabled us to start new services that would not have existed otherwise. Our board is dedicated to planning and preparing for this rural community to have easily accessible healthcare for years to come.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990
The independent accounting firm that prepares the Form 990 (based upon information provided by the organization) provides a copy of the return to be reviewed by management. Management performs a detailed review which consists of reviewing the financial data, the narratives disclosed, and other facts presented on the return. Upon review, the Form 990 and related schedules are provided to all board members for review and feedback. Once the Form 990 is reviewed by all applicable parties, a copy of the final version is provided to all members of the governing body prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy
The organization has a written policy respecting conflicts of interest and disclosure of same. Generally speaking, the policy requires any "Covered Person" who believes he has a conflict of interest to:
-disclose the existence and nature of the conflict of interest (including all facts known respecting the subject matter) to the chairman of the board;
-play no part, directly or indirectly, in the deliberation or vote of the board of directors with respect to the determination of whether a conflict of interest exists; and
-recuse himself from that portion of the meeting at which the conflict of interest is discussed.
The definition of a "Covered Person" includes all board members, officers and members of senior management of the organization.
When a Covered Person discloses a potential conflict of interest to the board chairman, the chairman is obliged to bring the matter to the attention of the full board who determines whether a conflict of interest actually exists. If a conflict of interest exists, the transaction or matter giving rise to the conflict of interest may not proceed unless the board determines, by a majority vote, that, despite the conflict of interest, the transaction/matter is nevertheless in the organization's best interest and is fair and reasonable to the Organization.
In addition to the requirement to disclose a potential conflict of interest at the time it arises, each must submit annually a `Conflict and Disclosure of Interest Questionnaire'.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
The board of directors reviews and approves the compensation for the CEO. The board uses comparable compensation data for similarly qualified persons at similarly sized organizations and salary surveys to determine the compensation for the CEO. The CEO, a voting member of the board, is dismissed from the meeting during the review of his compensation.
The last determination using comparable compensation data and salary surveys was in 2023. However, cost of living adjustments are given annually and are approved by the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers
The board of directors meets on a monthly basis, and the salary decisions are reviewed by the board.
